Charting Cultural Change in Melanesia

An expedition to the Solomon Islands and Papua New Guinea, May and June 2005

Westmorland, Huntt Voted in as Founding Members of International League of Conservation Photographers

ANCHORAGE, AK.- Michele Westmorland and Karen Huntt have been voted in as two of the forty founding members of the exclusive International League of Conservation Photographers. The League was launched at the 8th World Wilderness Congress in Anchorage, Alaska, October 1st and is supported by a number of highly recognized organizations including the National Geographic Society, WWF International, Conservation International, and the worldwide industry giant, Cemex. The founding members include Art Wolfe, Joel Sartore, Kevin Schaefer, Tui de Roy, Pete Oxford, Robert Glenn Ketchum, David Doubilet, Karl Amman, Patricio Robles Gil, Chris Rainier, Gary Braasch, Niall Benvie, Phil Borges, Christian Ziegler and Florian Schultz. The ILCP is an organization for photographers with a world reputation, who through their work are dedicated to environmental and cultural conservation.

Financial and in-kind contributions, tax-deductible under IRS regulations, are still being solicited. The expedition must raise an additional $300,000 for all anticipated expenses. Checks should be made out to "Wings WorldQuest-Mytinger Project," and mailed to: Wings WorldQuest, c/o Milbry Polk, P.O. Box 52, 236 Route 9W, Palisades, NY 10964.

Wings WorldQuest, Inc. is a New York state non-profit organization. Wings WorldQuest, Inc. has received a letter of determination from the Internal Revenue Service stating that it is a not-for-profit organization under Internal Revenue code section 501(c) (3).
